

Take Me Out to the Ball Game

- Who? Us... Damon Woods neighbors (adults only, well 25 adults only)
- What? A Brewers game against the Cincinnati Reds
- Where? Miller Park, of course; in Section 414 rows 1,2,3,4 (so we will be close together). Upper box seats, right on the first base bag
- When? Saturday, September 15th at 6:05 pm (tailgating starts at 4:00 pm)
- Why? Since the Brewers are in first place as of this writing, and a lot more people are interested this year for the first time in a very long time, I thought that a neighborhood game would be a lot of fun. I have purchased 25 tickets to the game. Who knows, maybe the Brewers will be wrapping up a divisional title that night or slugging it out against a divisional foe for a chance at the title.
- How? I think that five cars can get the entire group in with parking passes and all the fixins' for the tailgate.
- Cost? $30 per person and that includes: game ticket, parking, your tailgate food. Any money left over after I buy the food will be used for drinks, so you might have to bring your own beverage .

Now What? If you want to come, great. Drop off a check or cash at my house with the slip from below attached. First come first served. Also, tell me what it is you would like to eat for a main course. Side dishes will probably be potato salad, coleslaw, chips, salsa, guacamole and grilled veggies. Bring your own chairs!!!!
